Application/Statement of Assurances

The following assurances must be completed in full and attached to the application. Appropriate signatures (applicant, immediate supervisor, administrator, principal, vice-principal, dean of students, or career and technical education director) must accompany the assurances.

1. No person shall, on the basis of race, color, gender or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under the activities related to a WAME or NCA project.
2. All material submitted as part of a NCA project shall be the original work of the author(s) and shall have not been transcribed, copied or reproduced from copyrighted materials, nor shall they in any manner infringe upon the copyrights held by any agency organization, individual or other legal entity. All content, illustrations or other material shall be certified as being entirely the work of the authors(s).
3. NCA assumes and retains the sole right to all materials submitted as part of the project. Further, NCA retains the right to edit, revise, rewrite and publish at its sole discretion. Further, NCA shall retain the right to license others to reproduce any materials so designated. Finally, NCA assumes all additional rights of ownership upon submission of any project materials.
4. Full payment must be submitted to NCA prior to the initial summer in-service.
5. Once the applicant has been accepted and made the commitment to the training, no refund will be given if the participant drops out.
